

TESOLANZ SYMPOSIUM 2023

(September 30, 9am-4pm)

Keynote Speakers

Professor Averil Coxhead (Vocabulary)

(Te Herenga Waka, Victoria University of Wellington)

- Working with multiword units: Characteristics, principles and techniques

Dr Tracey Millin (Additional Language Development)

(Te Whare Wānanga o Waitaha, University of Canterbury)

- Second language development & the Matthew Effect: Unpacking English BICS & CALP Development within the NZ literacy development curriculum

Associate Professor Aek Phakiti (Assessment)

(The University of Sydney)

- What every teacher should know about language assessment

More information on our website:

<https://www.tesolanz.org.nz/events/tesolanz-symposium-2023/>

Find more Information on the TESOLANZ website:

- <https://www.tesolanz.org.nz/events/tesolanz-symposium-2023/>

Join TESOLANZ:

- <https://www.tesolanz.org.nz/join-us/>

TESOLANZ SYMPOSIUM 2023

(September 30, 9am-4pm)

WELLINGTON

Victoria, University of Wellington
Rutherford House, 33 Bunny Street, Pipitea

Time	Teaching Practices and Techniques
09:00-09:30	Welcome
09:30-10:30	Keynote 1 (live from Hamilton) Aek Phakiti What every teacher should know about language assessment
10:30-10:50	Morning Tea
10:50-11:20	Workshop: Amber Fraser-Smith Understanding and Empowering Neurodiverse Learners: A Workshop for ESOL Practitioners	Workshop: Dylan Parker English Planet-A Primary Level Accelerated English Language Learning Resource	Presentation: Wenzin Quan Understanding the effects of critical reading on reading comprehension among Chinese EFL adult learners	Presentation: Karen Cebalo & Chris Mashlan Sustaining the use of ELL-inclusive teaching in the classroom - a quick-reference tool for teachers	Presentation: Stephanie Layec AI in the classroom	Presentation: Margaret Corner Structured Literacy Approaches for ESOL Learners
11:20-11:50			Presentation: Elizaveta Tarasova & Natalia Beliaeva The role of phonological and morphological knowledge in reading skills development	Presentation: Tim Edwards (Re)-Connecting with New Zealand: Changes to various iterations of an ESP course and student feedback, 2019-2023 and beyond	Presentation: Dr Hilary Smith A culturally relevant book flood: More effective than teacher training	Presentation: Xiaofang Duan The Scaffolding Role of Cognitive Linguistic Approaches in Language Acquisition
11:50-12:45	Lunch
12:45-13:30	AGM (Hamilton)
13:30-14:30	Keynote 2 (live from Christchurch) Dr Tracey Millin Second language development & the Matthew Effect: Unpacking English BICS & CALP Development within the NZ literacy development curriculum
14:30-15:00	Presentation: Margaret Franken Working with/around the new NCEA literacy assessments to ensure better outcomes for ELLs			Presentation: Paul Nation The 20 best language teaching techniques
15:00-16:00	Keynote 3: Averil Coxhead Working with multiword units: Characteristics, principles and techniques
16:00-16:10	Closing

Register: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/710180116847?aff=oddtcreator>

TESOLANZ SYMPOSIUM 2023

(September 30, 9am-4pm)

CHRISTCHURCH

University of Canterbury, Rehua Building
Corner of, Forestry and Arts, Ilam, Christchurch

Time	Second/Additional language development
09:00-09:30	Welcome
09:30-10:30	Keynote 1 (live from Hamilton) Aek Phakiti What every teacher should know about language assessment
10:30-10:50	Morning Tea
10:50-11:20	Workshop: David Woodfield Learning Vocabulary: Taking it Deeper	Workshop: Susanne Sullivan Processes at work during second language development: Consequences for teachers	Presentation: Yuchen Hou & Kaiyu Ma Exploring English Writing Performance of Chinese Non-Top-Tier University Students Through a Translanguaging Lens
11:20-11:50			Presentation: Ha Pham What do English as a Foreign Language students learn as they do collaborative writing?
11:50-12:45	Lunch
12:45-13:30	AGM (Hamilton)
13:30-14:30	Keynote 2: Dr Tracey Millin Second language development & the Matthew Effect: Unpacking English BICS & CALP Development within the NZ literacy development curriculum
14:30-15:00	Presentation: Ting Ma Learning metaphors in the context of English as an additional language: What does the research say?	Presentation: Shengnan Zhang & Na Meng Ruminations on the Cultivation of Southeast Asian Language Major Graduate Students in China	Presentation: Zahra Emamzadeh Ministry of Education support
15:00-16:00	Keynote 3 (live from Wellington) Averil Coxhead Working with multiword units: Characteristics, principles and techniques
16:00-16:10	Closing

Register: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/710180678527?aff=oddtcreator>

TESOLANZ SYMPOSIUM 2023

(September 30, 9am-4pm)

HAMILTON

WINTEC, Te Pūkenga, Block A
Tristram Street, Hamilton Central

Time	(Assessment)
09:00-09:30	Welcome
09:30-10:30	Keynote 1: Aek Phakiti What every teacher should know about language assessment
10:30-10:50	Morning Tea
10:50-11:20	Workshop: Meg Shovelton Assessment 101: Everything you always wanted to know about assessment but were too afraid to ask	Presentation: Rosemary Erlam Fairer for all: innovative approaches to assessing English Language Learners in the mainstream classroom	Presentation: Yi Wang Authentic language learning and assessment: Practices and reflections on an NZCEL Employment programme
11:20-11:50		Presentation: Rosario Iguin Inclusive Assessments in Language Teaching: Current Approaches and Future Possibilities	Presentation: Rebecca Vane Keeping it Real: The Value of using Authentic Topics in NZCEL Level 4 Written Assessment
11:50-12:45	Lunch
12:45-13:30	AGM (Hamilton)
13:30-14:30	Keynote 2 (live from Christchurch) Dr Tracey Millin Second language development & the Matthew Effect: Unpacking English BICS & CALP Development within the NZ literacy development curriculum
14:30-15:00	Presentation: Mark Dawson-Smith The 2023 review of NZCEL qualifications: The journey so far	Presentation: Olga Lysun English phonetics in teaching learners	Presentation: Brendan Sheridan Designing Presentation Assessments using Pacific Pedagogies and AI
15:00-16:00	Keynote 3 (live from Wellington) Averil Coxhead Working with multiword units: Characteristics, principles and techniques
16:00-16:10	Closing

Register: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/691376976147?aff=oddtcreator>